

- ① Business Analytics Is the process of using statistical methods and data mining to transform raw data into improved decision making.
- ② Data Analytics Is the process of examining and transforming raw data to discover actionable insights. It uses tools like SQL, Excel and Tableau.
- ③ Business Intelligence It encompasses data collection, warehousing and visualization to identify trends, improve efficiency and gain competitive advantages.
- ④ Data-driven decision making - Is the process of using facts, metrics and data analysis to guide business decision. It reduce risks and achieve business goals.
- ⑤ Big data IT is referred as high volume, velocity and variety, requiring specialised technologies.
- ⑥ Descriptive Analytics Is the foundational process of using historical and current data understanding what happened in a business.
- ⑦ Diagnostic Analytics Is the process of examining data to determine the root causes of trends. It bridges the gap, of what happened and what will happen.
- ⑧ Predictive Analytics Is an advanced analytics that make use of historical data to forecast future outcomes.
- ⑨ Prescriptive Analytics Is the higher level of data analysis, focusing on recommending actions to achieve desired outcomes.
- ⑩ Data literacy Is the ability to read, work and communicate with data to make informed decision.

(11) Structured Data It is the way Information are organised, formatted into rows and columns.

(12) Unstructured Data Is Information that lacks a predefined format or organizational structure.

(13) Data warehouse Is a system that centralizes and consolidates data from multiple sources.

(14) Data Mining Is the process of analyzing large datasets to discover hidden patterns.

(15) Data Visualisation Is the graphical representation of information and data using charts, graphs and dashboards to make high-volume of datasets.

(16) Dashboard Is a way of displaying various types of visual data in one place.

(17) Metric Is a standard measure used to assess performance or progress. It acts as a consistent formula.

(18) Key Performance Indicator - Is a ~~key~~ numerical measure used to evaluate the success of an organisation.

(19) Benchmark Is something that serves as a standard by which others may be measured or judged.

(20) Segmentation Is the process where target-market, or audience are divided into smaller segments.

(21) Conversion Rate - Is the key marketing for measuring the success of sales campaigns.

(22) Customer Acquisition Cost Is the total expense a company spend to get a new customer, or advertising business.

(23) Customer lifetime Value - Is the total amount of profit a business expect to make from one customer throughout their entire relationship.

(24) Churn rate - Is the total percentage of customers who stop doing business with a company over a specific period.

28 Customer Retention Rate - Is the percentage of customers existing in a company for over a specific period.

29 Net promoter Scorer Is a customer's loyalty when a customer recommend a company product or service to others.

30 Average Order Value Is ~~the~~ measures the average amount spent per transaction, calculated by dividing total revenue by the number of orders.

31 Sales funnels Is a representation of the customer journey, mapping the steps customers take from initial brand awareness to making a final purchase.

32 Marketing Campaign Is a planned, strategic effort to promote a specific product, service or brand goal through social media channels.

33 post-Campaign Analysis Is the marketing performance againsts original goals to measure ROI.

34 Incremental Revenue Is the additional income generated by a specific business action.

35 Return on Investment It measures the amount of return or money gained lost on an investment relative to its initial cost.

36 Return on ad Spend Is a marketing metric measuring the gross revenue generated for every dollar spent on advertising.

37 Click-Through Rate Is a digital marketing measuring the percentage of people who click on a specific link.

38 Bounce Rate - Is the percentage of visitors who enter a website and leave after viewing only one page.

39 A/B Testing Is a controlled experiment comparing two versions of a digital asset to determine which performs better based on metrics like conversion rates.

③ Lead Generation Is the process of attracting customers who have potential and guide them into a company's Sales pipeline .

④ Marketing Attribution Is a process of identifying which marketing, social media or emails cause a customer to take a designed action.